

North Carolina

EmailPrintableShareReprints

March 2017

Embassy Suites Opens in Charlotte's Uptown

CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Embassy Suites by Hilton announced the opening of a newly-built hotel in Charlotte, North Carolina. The hotel is located in the financial and arts center of Uptown Charlotte, giving guests access to sports, theatre, restaurants, city parks and more. The hotel features 12,000 square feet of event space and multiple meeting rooms.

"We are eager for guests to experience the variety of amenities that this property has to offer," said Ron Feeney, general manager, Embassy Suites by Hilton Charlotte Uptown. "Accessibility to the EpiCentre shops, restaurants and nightlife, and the Lynx Light Rail make this location that much more appealing."

Embassy Suites by Hilton Charlotte Uptown is located just steps away from the Charlotte Convention Center and seven miles from the airport. The hotel has 250 Suites that include open living areas, kitchenettes and modern amenities like complimentary Wi-Fi, HDTVs and ergonomic workspaces.

In addition to Embassy Suites by Hilton's traditional amenities, this property also features a fireplace in the lobby and a Meck Dec Terrace where guests can enjoy craft cocktails from the QC Lounge. The Suki Akor Asian Fusion restaurant serves fresh grilled meats, fish and vegetables and freshly made sushi.